Date of Final Determination	Detainee Name	Detainee ISN
22 AUG 2016	Omar Mohammed Ali Al-Rammah	1017

The Periodic Review Board, by consensus, determined that continued law of war detention of the detainee remains necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

In making this determination, the Board considered the detainee's lengthy history as a jihadist, working as a facilitator, attending extensive military training, and engaging in extremist support in various countries to include Bosnia, Afghanistan, and Georgia. The Board also noted the detainee's past expressions of support for extremist activity against the United States and the detainee's lack of a developed plan for the future. Furthermore, the Board was unable to assess the detainee's current intentions and mindset due to his general evasiveness, and the recent discovery of the detainee's family makes it difficult for the Board to assess the level of available family support.

The Board is encouraged by efforts to reconnect with the detainee's family and identify additional sources of support for the detainee, and appreciated the detainee's candor regarding his military training and travel. Given the new connections and resources, the Board looks forward to the detainee providing a more developed reintegration plan for the future. More information regarding family contacts, the planned level of familial support, and the detainee's plan for the future will be important in the Board's assessment. The Board encourages improved candor about the detainee's radicalization process and past activities so the Board can assess his claimed change of mindset. Given the recent and positive developments, a file review should be completed in less than six months.
