08 AUG 2016	Abdul Rabbani Abu Rahmah	1460

The Periodic Review Board, by consensus, determined that continued law of war detention of the detainee remains necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

In making this determination, the Board considered that the detainee worked directly for al-Qa'ida external operations chief Khalid Shaykh Muhammad (ISN 10024) providing significant assistance to include playing a prominent role moving and housing al-Qa'ida fighters and key figures, the detainee's lack of candor and contradictory statements regarding his knowledge as to the activities of Khalid Shaykh Muhammad and others, and the lack of evidence of a change in the detainee's mindset. The Board also noted that the detainee did not articulate a plan to prevent exposure to avenues for reengagement.

The Board would welcome additional information from the Saudi Government for consideration in future reviews and encourages the detainee to be more forthcoming with the Board.
