Detainee Name	Salman Yahya Hassan Muhammad Rabei'i
Detainee Alias	See Compendium
Nationality	Yemeni
Date of Birth	June 1979
Arrival at Guantanamo	May 2002

Salman Yahya Hassan Muhammad Rabei'i (YM-508) was recruited by his brother Fawaz, an al-Qa'ida operative, and traveled to Afghanistan in August 2001 where he received training from al-Qa'ida and possibly fought in Tora Bora before his capture. During his time at Guantanamo, Rabei'i has been mostly compliant, although his behavior changed between late 2015 and May 2016 because of frustration over his Periodic Review Board (PRB) status. Rabei'i continues to provide limited details about his plans should he be released from detention, although he wishes to reunite with his Yemen-based family and would like to move them to wherever his new location may be. Several of his family members are involved in or sympathetic to extremist activities and could offer him potential paths to reengagement.
