Unclassified Summary of Final Determination

| Date of Final Determination | Detainee Name                | Detainee ISN |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------|
| 26 MAY 2016                        | Uthman Abd al-Rahim Muhammad Uthman | 27                  |

The Periodic Review Board, by consensus, determined that continued law of war detention of the detainee remains necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

In making this determination, the Board considered the detainee's past involvement in terrorist activities to include receiving combat training, staying in al-Qaeda guesthouses, fighting in the Tora Bora mountains probably against Coalition Forces, and his selection to be a bodyguard for Usama Bin Ladin. The Board also noted that the detainee's explanation for why he went to Afghanistan and what he did there was not credible. Further, the Board considered that the detainee's vague answers and almost complete lack of candor made it difficult for the Board to assess his current state of mind and intentions for the future, and that his prior statements suggests that he retains anti-US sentiments and is sympathetic to extremist causes.

The Board looks forward to reviewing the detainee's file in six months and encourages the detainee to continue to be compliant and take classes, to prepare a more detailed plan for the future, and to be more candid in future reviews.
