Encep Nurjaman, a.k.a. Hambali (ID-10019) was an operational mastermind in the Southeast Asia-based extremist group Jemaah Islamiyah (JI) and served as the main interface between JI and al-Qa'ida from 2000 until his capture in mid-2003. Hambali remains a highly compliant detainee, to increase his odds of transfer from Guantanamo. We have no information indicating that Hambali maintains contact with terrorists at-large; however, his younger brother probably is involved in or sympathetic to extremist activities, offering Hambali a potential path to reengage if he chose to do so.
