Mohammed Bashir Bin Lap, a.k.a. Lillie (MY-10022) was a Jemaah Islamiyah (JI) associate and al-Qa'ida member prior to his detention. He traveled to Afghanistan in mid-2000 after learning about jihad at a Malaysian mosque. Lillie served as a key lieutenant for senior al-Qa'ida and Jemaah Islamiyah leader Riduan Bin Isomuddin, a.k.a. Hambali (MY-10019). Since March 2016, Lillie has been generally compliant and has maintained a neutral position between the guard force and the other detainees, according to an October 2016 JTF-GTMO compliance assessment. Although he has not directly voiced support for terrorism since at least 2014, he also has not renounced any previous terrorist sentiments. We have no information indicating that Lillie's family members in Malaysia have engaged in extremist activities, and he has no known associations with at-large extremists.
