~~(U//FOUO)~~ Hasan Ahmed Guleed (SO-10023) traveled in 1995 from Sweden to Afghanistan for jihadist purposes and trained at what were probably al-Qa'ida sites; he traveled in 1996 to Somalia, where he joined the radical Muslim group al-Ittihad al-Islami (AIAI), fought against the Ethiopian military, and provided training to AIAI members. Guleed later served as a key member of the al-Qa'ida in East Africa (AQEA) network in Somalia, providing logistic and operational support to AQEA leaders, including probably surveilling Djibouti's Camp Lemonier, the target of an AQEA plot.
