Salem Ahmad Hadi Bin Kanad (YM-131)—a Yemeni who fought for the Taliban and possibly received training from al-Qa'ida—has continued to praise terrorist groups and activities, indicating that he retains an extremist mindset. Nevertheless, he has remained mostly compliant with the guard force at Guantanamo Bay, committing no violent offenses since late 2013. Neither YM-131 nor his relatives in Saudi Arabia or Yemen have identified links with extremists outside Guantanamo.
