Unclassified Summary of Final Determination

Date of Final Determination	Detainee Name	Detainee ISN
11 OCT 2016	Hassan Muhammad Ali Bin Attash	1456

The Periodic Review Board, by consensus, determined that continued law of war detention of the detainee remains necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

In making this determination, the Board considered the detainee's history with al-Qa'ida, to include serving as an explosives specialist and an aid to several senior al-Qa'ida members, as well as supporting numerous plots against the US and other Western targets in Afghanistan, Pakistan, the Middle East, and North Africa. Additionally, the Board did not find the detainee credible because the detainee denied making any statements threatening guards or expressing his belief that Westerners are his enemies and that he remains intent on reengaging after detention, and the detainee refused to acknowledge that he was affected by his extremist upbringing and indoctrination at an early age. The detainee downplayed his knowledge regarding what was happening during his extensive time in Afghanistan and Pakistan, which is not credible given the significant amount of time he spent in Afghanistan. The Board was unable to assess the detainee's current mindset due to his refusal to be candid in response to numerous lines of questioning.
