Date of Final Determination	Detainee Name	Detainee ISN
08 JUN 2021	Abd Al-Salam Al-Hilah	1463

The Periodic Review Board, by consensus, determined that continued law of war detention of the detainee is no longer necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

In making this determination, the Board recognizes the detainee presents some level of threat in light of his past activities; however, the Board found that in light of the factors and conditions of transfer identified below, the threat the detainee presents can be adequately mitigated. The Board considered the detainee's lack of training and lack of a leadership role in extremist organizations, the detainee's candid responses to the Board's questions regarding his pre-detention actions, the detainee's credible statements regarding his strong desire to return to his family, the detainee has a realistic post-transfer plan and the lack of indication that the detainee harbors extremist beliefs or intentions to reengage.

The PRB recommends the following conditions that relate to the detainee's transfer: Appropriate security assurances, resettlement to a country with family reunification, reintegration support, and the capacity to implement appropriate security measures.
