The Periodic Review Board, by consensus, determined that continued law of war detention of the detainee remains necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

In making this determination, the Board considered the detainee's elevated threat profile as evidenced by his prior roles in Afghanistan and prior associations. The Board's inability to assess the detainee's current threat level due to the detainee's refusal to participate in meetings with his representative, the lack of submission of any new materials by the detainee and the detainee's decision not to attend the hearing.

The Board encourages the detainee to engage in the PRB process in the future.
