Date of Birth	1 July 1968
Arrival at Guantanamo	August 2002

Ismail Ali Faraj Ali Bakush (LY-708) was a Libyan Islamic Fighting Group explosives expert who trained al-Qa'ida members and probably provided operational support to key al-Qa'ida figures, according to custodial interviews. He consistently has denied his close association with al-Qa'ida and expertise with explosives, according to same sources; however, we assess that Bakush played a greater role in al-Qa'ida operations than he admits.
