Date of Board Determination 21 AUG 2018	Detainee Name Ismael Ali Faraj Ali Bakush	Detainee ISN 708
---	---	----------------------------

DECISION: The Periodic Review Board (PRB) determines:

By consensus, continued law of war detention of the detainee remains necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

By consensus, continued law of war detention is no longer necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

FACTORS WHICH CONTRIBUTED TO THE CONSENSUS DETERMINATION (attach additional sheets if needed)

- The detainee's long history of working with the LIFG and al-Qaeda and the fact that he played a significant role in al-Qaeda operations including his role as an explosives expert and trainer.
 - The detainee's refusal to engage with his personal representative or to appear and respond to questions from the Board prevents the Board from assessing his intentions for the future and whether he has had a change in mindset.

The PRB recommends the following conditions that relate to the detainee's transfer
