Unclassified Summary of Final Determination

Date of Final Determination	Detainee Name	Detainee ISN
23 MAR 2016	Ayub Murshid Ali Salih	836

The Periodic Review Board, by consensus, determined that continued law of war detention of the detainee is no longer necessary to protect against a continuing significant threat to the security of the United States.

In making this determination, the Board noted that the detainee's degree of involvement and significance in extremist activities has been reassessed to be that of a low-level fighter, and the detainee's relative candor in discussing his time in Afghanistan. Further, the Board considered the detainee's acceptance of the mistakes he has made and credible desire not to repeat those mistakes, his acknowledgement that he has benefitted from his time in detention and has taken advantage of educational opportunities while at Guantanamo, and his lack of ongoing extremist ties.

The PRB recommends the detainee be transferred with appropriate security assurances as determined by the Guantanamo Detainee Transfer Working Group, and resettlement with reintegration support.
